DETAILED ACTION

1. An abandonment notice was sent out 20 April 2004. This Notice was not meant to conclude prosecution; it was merely used to move the case forward as there was difficulty with the case when it was transferred from a Paper File to an Electronic File.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 22-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventors, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Claim 22 states that the "polyolefin precursor/filler blend" is combined with "an additive in its solid state from a group including..." The examiner made this rejection in a previous Office Action dated 19 February 2003. At that time the examiner contacted the applicant to point out support for such a feature in the specification for this feature, the applicant pointed to the table on page 14 of the specification, stating that the Melt Flow Indexes listed in that table were representative of materials in their solid state. While this may be true, the specification still fails to state that these materials, when combined as an additive as in the claims, are actually in a solid state.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 9-21 are allowed.

Art Unit: 1734

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: See Applicant arguments dated 15 April 2004.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
